

Stephen Torrence

Technology. Discovery. Austin.

(512) 630.1990

torrentsofthought.com

stephen.torrence@gmail.com

Employment

2013 - 2015

No. 4 St. James Operations Director

Helped launch a unique Texas e-commerce brand.

Owned supply chain management, business modeling, sales and traffic analytics, fulfillment, inventory control, technical back-end, customer service, day-to-day accounting, and coffee production.

2010 - 2013

Apple Retail Specialist, Mobile Device Technician

Enriched lives. Repaired relationships.

Presented solutions to thousands of customers. Conducted workshops and personal training. Serviced iPhones, iPads, and Macs. Built a strong presence in the Market-renowned team at The Domain Apple Store.

Organizations

2014 - Now

EFF-Austin Board Member, Meetup Coordinator

Advocating for civil liberties on the Electronic Frontier.

Planning, promoting and executing monthly meetups at Capital Factory, owning our social media, lobbying for privacy bills in the Texas Legislature, and educating on rights issues in Web, InfoSec, and law enforcement.

2010 - Now

Museum of Computer Culture Vice President

501(c)3 bridging past and present through vintage computing.

Developing solutions to support the digital humanities through data migration services for universities and archival institutions. Sharing computer history through digital preservation and hardware collection.

Education

2006 - 2010

Texas Tech University Philosophy, B. A. General Studies, B. G. S.

Minor Studies in Mathematics, Physics, American Sign Language.

Focused on student leadership through the Honors College and Residence Halls Association. Served as Society of Physics Students president. Led multiple 100+ person events. Facilitated lively discussions on current issues.

